QUESTION WITHOUT NOTICE
(Of which some notice has been given)

Wednesday, 7 August 2013

Hon Robin Chappie to the Minister for Aboriginal Affairs.

With reference to the functions of the Aboriginal Cultural Materials Committee (ACMC) and the specialist anthropologist, I ask

- 1) Is there currently an appointed specialist anthropologist or deputy specialist anthropologist?
- 2) If no to 1) when did these positions become vacant
- 3) If no to 1) is the ACMC allowed to continue meeting, in the absence of a special anthropologist, and are the decisions then made by the committee valid

I thank the Hon. Member for some notice of this question.

1. No. The Department of Aboriginal Affairs has conducted a nationwide recruitment process for the Specialist Anthropologist position.

2. Specialist Anthropologist - 31 May 2013.
Deputy Specialist Anthropologist - 1 December 2011.

3. Yes.
