About 12:30pm today, Monday 4 August 2014, a 22 year old woman being held in police custody at the South Hedland Police Station was taken to the Hedland Health Campus after alerting officers to the fact she was not feeling well.

Upon arrival at the hospital the woman's condition deteriorated and she passed away.

Due to the fact the woman had been in police custody prior to her death, officers from the Internal Affairs Unit will investigate her death as a death in police custody.
